

LLM

International Law

Key Features

- Develop a comprehensive understanding of international law principles and practices, with a focus on real-world application in international business and commerce.
- Gain hands-on experience through the Postgraduate Major Project, tackling real-life international law challenges.
- Build advanced skills in legal research, critical thinking, decision-making, and effective communication.

Full course info	london.aru.ac.uk/courses
Fees	£9,000 or £7,000 for Alumni
	International: £18,600
Location	London

About this course

One of the most distinctive features of this course is its focus on the practical application of legal principles in the relations between States and international organisations. From day one, you will engage with real-world legal challenges and explore how the law operates across borders. The course prepares you to navigate complex legal issues with confidence and equips you with the tools needed to succeed in today's global legal environment.

Studying in London gives you direct access to one of the world's most influential legal hubs. With a wide range of international law firms, courts, commercial enterprises, and non-governmental organisations based in the city, you will benefit from outstanding learning opportunities rooted in real-life legal contexts.

This course supports the development of the knowledge, ethics, and competencies needed to succeed in a broad range of legal roles within the UK and internationally.

You will graduate with a thorough understanding of international legal principles, positioning you for diverse careers in law, policy, or legal consultancy.

Modules

- Postgraduate Study Skills, Research Methods and Ethics (Law)
- International Law: Problems and Process
- International Law and the Rights of Individuals
- International Economic Law and Policy
- International Dispute Settlement
- Postgraduate Major Project (Law)

Careers

Graduates with a solid understanding of international legal principles, combined with practical experience and applied research skills, will be well prepared for roles across the public, private, and non-governmental sectors. This course equips you to analyse complex legal issues, apply international law in real-world settings, and contribute to the development of legal policy and practice.

You will also enhance your employability through the development of advanced legal research, communication, and problem-solving skills—qualities highly valued by employers across the legal and international sectors.

Career routes

- Legal Advisor
- Policy Analyst
- Compliance Officer
- NGO or International Organisation Legal Specialist
- Corporate Governance Consultant
- Legal Researcher
- International Arbitration Assistant