Will you be studying a full Master's Course?

A full Master's course is 180 credits.

You may not be completing 180 credits if you're;

- Using previous study, academic credits or experience to exempt you from studying part of your course.
- Studying a top-up course (60/80 credits)
- Studying a Postgraduate Certificate (60 credits)
- Studying a Postgraduate Diploma (120 credits)

If any of these apply to you, you should answer 'No'.

If you're not sure if you are studying a full Master's course you must discuss this with your university before applying for a Postgraduate Loan.

☐ Yes, I'm studying a full Master's course

☐ No, I'm not studying a full Master's course
