About Us

ARU London is the trading name of LCA London Ltd, a proud partner of Anglia Ruskin University, delivering ARU-validated degrees.

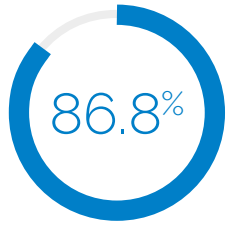

Dive into the heart of ARU London through the lens of our students

Our teaching

At ARU London, we ensure that the highest academic standards and quality, as well as enriching learning opportunities, are embedded across our degree course.

Our lecturers boast significant real-world experience and have worked within the sector they teach, which facilitates the practical application of theory.

Our students consistently rate ARU London highly in the annual National Student Survey, a student satisfaction survey regarding the academic and overall student experience.

Boasting an outstanding 86.8% for overall positivity, ARU London continues to deliver an excellent student experience. This remarkable achievement reflects our commitment to creating a supportive, inspiring, and high-quality learning environment for every student.[2]

1. NSS 2025

Our students

Our fantastic academics will link theory with practice in a friendly and supportive environment, just one of the reasons that our students have recorded some of the highest satisfaction rates. According to The Times Higher Education, we proudly achieved a remarkable milestone, securing the #3 spot for overall positivity among higher education institutions in the UK, boasting an impressive rating of 85.3% in the 2023 National Student Survey (NSS).

ARU London achieved an exceptional 88.7% for exceptional learning opportunities, ranking in the top 10 UK universities. This reflects our commitment to delivering enriching academic experiences that help students reach their full potential.

Your library

We understand that while textbooks provide immense support, guidance, and knowledge to students, they are often a financial burden for many, so we support our students by supplying the core textbook for each of your modules. We provide e-Books for all new students. Your e-Books are available as soon as you start your course. They can be accessed through our online learning platform, and on our mobile app. e-Books can accommodate various learning needs and have an interactive functionality. During Welcome Week, you will learn how to access and make best use of them.

Your timetable

2 day timetable

- Our 2-day timetable helps you to reduce your costs, making your student support bursary go even further
- The 2-day timetable allows time for you to undertake meaningful and relevant part-time work, if desired, to support your future graduate employment opportunities

We also offer an alternative evening and weekend study mode for selected courses at postgraduate level. This delivery mode can be ideal if the standard day timetable doesn't work for you.

Your attendance

If you're new to the London commute, you'll soon realise that throughout your study, the costs quickly add up. All of our undergraduate students are eligible for a student support bursary.

To be eligible for the Student Support Bursary, you will need:

- To be studying an undergraduate degree
- 80% minimum attendance across all modules for the semester
- To submit all assessments on time

If the above requirements are met at the end of trimester 1 and trimester 2, two separate payments of £250 will be paid into your bank account to support travel costs at the end of each trimester.

£500 bursary available per academic year.

University of the Year 2023

We're proud to be the Times Higher Education (THE) University of the Year 2023.

The prestigious THE awards honour exceptional performance.

Our submission focused on the difference we make in the regions and communities where we're based – while also acknowledging the broader impact of our world-leading research, and the contributions our students and graduates make to society.

Taking pride in our University community

At ARU, our mission is to serve our communities and transform lives through innovative, inclusive and entrepreneurial education and research.

Our staff and students have helped to make the projects mentioned above – and others – the successes that they are.

We are proud of all our staff and the transformational difference they're making to our students' lives. We are equally proud of our students: what they achieve when they're with us, and the positive change they bring to their world as graduates.

Teaching Excellence Framework

ARU rated Gold in the Teaching Excellence Framework

We are proud to have received a Gold award for the quality of our education in a UK-wide review of university teaching standards and positive student outcomes

Why we are rated Gold

Our course content and delivery was rated as outstanding with the review citing;

> "Innovative and highly effective course design and content that inspires students to actively engage and commit to their learning."

We are also rated outstanding in the areas of:

- Student engagement in learning
- Learning environment and academic support
- Learning resources
- Student engagement in improvement
- Approaches to supporting student success
- Intended educational gains
- Approaches to supporting educational gains.

What is the Teaching Excellence Framework?

The Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF) is a national scheme run by the Office for Students that focuses on the areas students care most about: teaching, learning, and achieving positive outcomes from their studies.

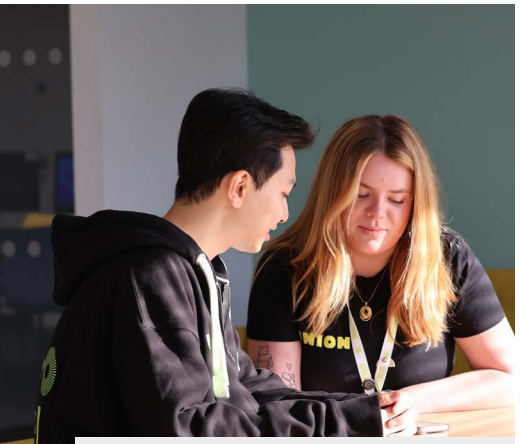

It has three outcomes: Bronze, Silver and Gold.

Our Gold award signifies that our student experience and outcomes are typically outstanding.

Union London

What is a students' union?

We're a charity that supports students and exists to make your experience the best it can be. You get to decide how we're run and what we do. Union London will be making sure your voice is heard and supporting you from your first day to your graduation.

Welcome to ARU London

Union London is here to represent your interests and make sure you have an excellent experience during your time at ARU London. As your London Officers, we will be here to listen to your feedback, working to make sure impactful change is made while also running fun social events throughout the year.

The Union will also provide opportunities and events throughout the year to engage in personal and professional development. We also have a confidential advice service to help you during your times of need.

The best way to get the best experience is to get involved! Whether you decide to become a student representative, join a society, run a project or even sign up for your volunteer profile, there is so much to explore and gain while you are here at ARU London.

Starting at university can be quite daunting and nervy, but you won't be the only one feeling the same way. Getting involved and taking up the opportunities to take part in networking opportunities, social activities or engaging in personal development is a great way to overcome this.

As your journey begins, there is so much potential to be had over the next few years while you study here, as your Union we will be here every step of the way to help you through it.

We wish you the best of luck!

Union London

Your university experience matters. Together, we'll make it truly outstanding.

Nayem Hasan,
ARU London
Campus Officer

As your Union, we will...

Put students in charge

We will give students more opportunities throughout the year to get involved, take up leadership positions and steer the direction of the union. We exist for your experience so it is your voice that should be guiding us to provide the right support and opportunities for you!

Extend student rights and opportunities

Along with your elected London Officer, we will engage in policy and campaigns to improve the student experience. We will work to continue our successes in academic representation and support you in the places that you study in.

85.1%

Scoring 85.1% for organisation and management, ARU London ranks among the top 20 UK universities, standing 7.33% above the national average. This reflects our focus on delivering a well-structured and smoothly managed student journey. NSS 2025

Build and nurture communities

We will provide spaces, events and opportunities on campus to bring students together and develop new skills to help you both inside and out of university. We will empower students who are forming their own groups, project teams and societies through continued support of their work in building communities on campus. Anyone who wants to join or lead community work will be supported by a member of the Union team.

Develop

We believe that university is more than just studying. We are passionate about maximising your development whilst you're with us and have placed employability at the heart of our activity. All opportunities and roles that we offer, both paid and voluntary, will provide you with a unique and important set of skills.

Reach Out

Life can be hard sometimes with plenty of unexpected hurdles to jump over. As one of our members, you can gain access to our free, confidential, and impartial advice service. Our wonderful advisers are here to help you with any tough decisions you are faced with, both academically and personally.

How do I sign up?

We exist entirely to support you and help you get the most out of your time at university. As soon as you become a student at ARU London, you automatically become a member of the Union London – and the best bit? It's totally free.

To find out more, you can take a look at our website arunion.co.uk/london

8.27%

When asked, "How well does the Students' Union represent students' academic interests?", ARU London scored an impressive 83.3%, ranking 8th out of 102 UK universities and standing 8.27% above the sector average. This achievement reflects our ongoing commitment to ensuring every student's voice is heard and represented. NSS 2025

Life in London

With a total student population of over 500,000, London offers an unrivalled multicultural experience and is one of the most popular student destinations in the world.

Heritage

The history of London is so rich and deep that it would be impossible to summarise it all on just this page, but London has been at the centre of history since before the Romans, making it a fascinating location for landmarks, galleries, museums, and tours.

Food

As one of the culinary capitals of the world, whatever your taste buds desire, London can cater to it all. Whether you are visiting Borough Market or checking in at Chinatown, no cuisine is left unexplored.

Nightlife

There are many clubs throughout the capital that will not disappoint, as well as sell-out gigs and concerts at over 300 venues. If you're looking for something quieter, there are plenty of chill evenings happening too, such as nightly boat cruises on the Thames or comedy nights in Soho. To make it even better, at the weekends, almost everywhere in London is accessible with mainline tubes running 24-hours.

Shopping

As a cultural capital with strong international business hubs and a diverse population, London makes a standout commerce destination. Whatever your style, London caters to all, with areas such as Oxford Street, Knightsbridge, Carnaby Street, Westfield, and Bond Street offering a mix of retail, restaurants, cafes, cinemas, and entertainment.

Sport

With cricket, rugby, and football all originating in the UK, it's no wonder that London is a hotspot for sport. Not only can you watch just about any sport in London, but we encourage you to take part in opportunities to play throughout the capital. Lord's Cricket Ground is located near Regent's Park in Central London, Wembley Stadium can be found in the west, and in the east, a stone's throw away from the East India campus, is the Olympic Village in Stratford, where the legacy of the 2012 London Olympics can be found.

Culture

Some of the most famous, popular and largest heritage gardens, royal buildings, street parties and festivals, film locations, theatre and musicals, and art shows in the world, mixed in with a pub on almost every corner, make London the place to be all year round. You'll quickly find yourself embedded into the everyday culture of London – even hopping on the tube is part of it.

Stay local

Explore some of the areas local to campus by visiting the Royal Observatory, take a stroll through the scenic Greenwich Park, and marvel at the Cutty Sark.

Undergraduate Degrees

Study Options

All undergraduate courses are offered as full-time study for 3 years, or 4 years with a foundation year.

Across our courses and the modules within them, we aim to provide a relevant and comprehensive education.

In addition to providing students with a detailed grounding in theory, there is a great deal of emphasis on the practical side of learning.

Many of our academic staff remain actively involved in business practice which enables them to keep their modules relevant and stimulating.

"In the School of Health and Society, the student experience is at the heart of everything we do. We are committed to supporting your achievement every step of the way. Here, you are not a number but an individual , known, valued, and encouraged to thrive. Our welcoming community fosters a strong sense of belonging, enabling you to develop the confidence, skills, and ambition needed to succeed both at university and beyond".

About this course

At ARU London, you can take your first step towards becoming a solicitor or barrister, as our course will qualify you for the next stage of your legal training. You will study both academic and practical aspects of the law, which not only prepare you for a legal career, but will also give you many skills that are highly valued in other occupations.

As you go through our core modules, you'll be developing key knowledge of fundamental features of the UK and EU legal systems, and the context in which the law operates. All this while engaging in critical analysis with peers, solving legal problems, and undertaking independent research, flexing your ability to construct complex legal arguments.

Careers

If you want to proceed to the vocational stage of training as a barrister or solicitor (Bar Professional Training Course), this LLB is your first step. You might also choose to work in private practice as a paralegal, carrying out many of the tasks and roles of a qualified solicitor.

Our students go on to a wide range of careers. Some, of course, go on to the next stage of training to become solicitors and barristers. Others go on to work as paralegals, and others use their LLB in a variety of other professions, including banking, commerce, government, and teaching.

Career Routes: Barrister, Barrister's Clerk, Chartered Legal Executive, Company Secretary, Solicitor, Patent Attorney, Data Analyst, Human Resources Officer, Civil Service.

Graduation with a 2:2 or above with a degree covering these subjects is required by the Bar Standards Board for entry to the vocational stage of training to become a Barrister. Our LLB also covers the subjects which are examined by the Solicitor's Qualifying Exam 1 (SQE 1); the first step in professional training to become a Solicitor.

Key Features

- Join the first academic stage of training to become a solicitor or barrister
- Cover the "Foundations of Legal Knowledge" required for a Qualifying Law Degree

International Project Management

About this course

Realising your dreams has never been easier; whether you want to work within the public sector or the private sector or set out as an entrepreneur, studying on our International Project Management degree will reassure stakeholders that you have sound knowledge of project management; as the degree meets the technical requirements of the APM chartered project professional competency framework.

Professional project managers are in significant demand in the UK and internationally. In the current environment, agile project managers have been able to escalate and transform projects faster than before, such as with COVID-19 vaccine delivery. The Programme Leader, together with a team of multi-disciplinary academics, have designed this course with the needs of modern professional project managers in mind. This postgraduate degree will enable you to explore project management in a wide range of contexts, including long-run public sector infrastructure projects and short-to-medium-term projects in private sector businesses, public sector organisations and not-for-profit organisations.

The degree has a practical emphasis rather than an overtly academic or theoretical approach. It is pivotal because the project management function is required to deliver hard and measurable results.

Careers

Career opportunities for our MSc International Project Management graduates exist in the public, private and voluntary aided sectors. Some of our alumni have gone on to be project management professionals in a wide range of organisations including consultancy, construction and infrastructure, retail, IT, supply chain and logistics, real estate, or owners of their start-up consultancies. Others have gone on to doctoral studies or careers in academia.

Our Academic Team

Dr Carol Callinan
Course Director - Health and Social Care

Carol joined Anglia Ruskin University London in 2023 and is an experienced Senior Lecturer who has worked in university settings for almost 20 years.

Carol has a background in psychology, education and research. During her career, she has completed a number of projects and published in a number of areas including mental health, constructivist approaches to learning, and special educational needs and inclusion. She currently teaches at both undergraduate and postgraduate level.

"Our Health and Social Care programmes will support you in developing your career prospects through engaging, student-centred learning. We pride ourselves on offering mentoring and guidance to help you achieve."

Dr Claire English
Course Director - Business and Human Resource Management

Claire is an experienced and engaged Senior Lecturer, researcher and dissertation supervisor. She has taught on Undergraduate, Masters, MSc and MBA modules covering: Human Resource Management, Organisational Behaviour, International Business, Business Research Skills, and Gender at Work. She has taught at numerous universities across the UK and has experience of course leadership, PhD supervision and coordinating student pastoral care.

Claire has a decade of experience working in the not-for-profit sector, working in Operations, Events Management and as an Equality Consultant. Her teaching draws both on her professional experiences and a commitment to the values of Organisation Studies as a discipline that seeks to advance our knowledge of organisations: organising, the organised, the disorganised and the unsettled. Broadly rooted in the social sciences it promotes an understanding of these phenomena as shaping, and being shaped by, the societies of which they are part, offering pathways for better and fairer ways of organising society.

"Our understandings of what work is, what it should be, who should do which kinds of work and why, is central to understanding human behaviour in our current times. The way work and employment relations are organised in our societies determines everything from the quality of our lives to who gets to hold power; there is little more important than analysing this so we can change it for the better."

Alexander Muir
Course Director - Business, Hospitality and Events Management

Alexander joined Anglia Ruskin University London in 2023 as a Senior Lecturer.

He holds a BBS in International Hotel Management from the University of Galway and an MSt in Social Innovation from the University of Cambridge.

He has extensive operational management experience at some of the leading hospitality management companies in the UK. In 2022, Alexander began his academic career lecturing in Project Management at the University of Coventry London Campus and then as a Lecturer in Digital Business Management at Northeastern University London. Alexander is a Member of the Association of Project Management and the Institute of Hospitality and is a fellow of the Institute of Leadership. He was awarded Fellowship of the Higher Education Academy in 2023. His main research includes strategic design in hospitality, innovation, and sustainability.

"The hospitality, events and tourism industries are full of endless exciting opportunities. At ARUL, we ensure our students explore these roles and get the skills needed to succeed in these dynamic industries. We focus on real life case studies, the latest trends in the industry and engage with key industry leaders across the sector."

Dr Kate Nishigai
Course Director - LLB (Hons) Law

Dr Kate Nishigai joined ARU London in 2025 as a senior lecturer in Law. She teaches broadly across the law curriculum, including 'International Economic Law', 'Business and Corporate Law', 'Equity and Trusts', 'Property Law', and 'Business and Corporate Law', at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels.

Her teaching focuses on developing students' legal reasoning and analytical skills. Kate is a Fellow of the Higher Education Academy (FHEA) and is committed to inclusive and student-centred teaching that supports student achievement and progression.

"Law plays a crucial role in the reproduction of society; it permeates all aspects of our lives and shapes our relations with others. Therefore, I believe it is important that anyone studying law not only learns the legal "rules" but also understands how the law and legal institutions are influenced by, and in turn influence, society, politics, and morality. It is through this fuller understanding that students will be better equipped with the knowledge and skills necessary to succeed in their future endeavours."

Open Days

Come visit us

Our open days are easily the best way to decide if ARU London is for you. You can explore the campus, take a closer look at our facilities and, above all, meet the fantastic people who study and work here.

Throughout the day, you will be able to discover our university and get an authentic feel for what university life would be like here.

Why choose ARU London?

Online and physical open days

Attend scheduled talks and guides throughout our open days to get a real feel for university life at ARU London from our students and staff, with the opportunity to ask questions on ARU London life and study.

We are currently running both online and physical open days. You can sign up and choose which event you would like to attend on our website.

During the event, you will hear from our Principal, as well as specialist academics for the courses you are interested in.

Our online open days are live on Zoom. Once you have signed up, we will email you the details on how to join the event, as well as preparation emails reminding you of the schedules and upcoming events.

You can also apply via UCAS using the relevant course codes, which are in this prospectus.

Postgraduate applicants

Candidates wishing to enrol on a postgraduate degree should complete an online application through our website, please see the direct link to the right.

English language requirements

To demonstrate proficiency in English language, ARU London recognises several formal tests. ARU London have partnered with Password and Duolingo to deliver computer-based English Language Tests.

For the Password test, applicants must achieve an average of 6.0 with 5.5 in each sub-test for an undergraduate degree and 6.5 average with a minimum of 5.5 in each sub-test for a postgraduate degree.

For the Duolingo English Test, applicants must achieve an average of 100 for undergraduate entry and 110 for postgraduate entry, and no less than 90 in all sub-scores (Literacy, Conversation, Comprehension, Production).

Please see our website london.aru.ac.uk/admissions/english-language-requirements for details of the scores required from the most widely available English language tests (if the test you have taken or will soon be taking is not listed, you should contact us to check we recognise this particular test and for details of the scores required for admission).

If you have any questions, please email admissions@london.aru.ac.uk

Accommodation

Whilst we do not have any halls of residence on campus, we can direct you to our preferred partners who can offer various types of accommodation within an easy travelling distance of ARU London.

In London, there are many different types of student accommodation to suit every budget, style, and preference. The main types of student accommodation consist of private student halls, house or flat shares, bedsits/studios, and lodgings.

london.aru.ac.uk/admissions/accommodation

Who do you want to live with?
Sharing a house in London can be brilliant, but there are a few things to consider before signing your contract. Choosing the right people to live with is important for your wellbeing, studies and overall life in London, and while it is ideal to find friends to live with, this isn't always easy if you're moving to a new location.

Spend time discussing what you all want out of your living situation as housemates. It's important to make sure that your lifestyles don't affect one another. This discussion should include rent and bills and other monetary commitments you may want to share, as well as location, aesthetics, amenities, facilities, room sizes, and/or parking.

Shop around
Don't immediately accept the first place you see, make sure you look around before you decide and do your research. View a house in person before signing, pictures can be very different to the real thing, and it is best to experience the house first-hand.

Set a budget
Create a minimum and maximum figure of the amount you are willing to pay for rent and bills. This will help make financial decisions when weighing your options.

Near or far
Know what type of place you want to live in and what area. Check out how easy it is to commute to the campus and back, and how close you are to amenities, such as shops and healthcare practices.

Making time
Unless you are happy to relocate multiple times, remember to keep in mind that you will need accommodation for however long you are studying.

Ready to sign?
If you've found a place, make sure you read the contract thoroughly before agreeing to anything. Here is an overview of things to check: www.studentpad.co.uk/housing-guides/before-you-sign.

Make sure your deposit will be protected in a recognised scheme, and only pay the agreed rent and deposit amount – it is now illegal to charge referencing or agency fees: www.gov.uk/government/collections/tenant-fees-act

Your Student Support

Student Voice & Wellbeing

We remain committed to creating a learning environment where every student feels supported, encouraged and heard.

In the 2025 National Student Survey (NSS), we achieved an 81% score for Student Voice, placing us in the top 20 of all mainstream UK universities.

This reflects our ongoing focus on listening to student feedback, strengthening wellbeing support, and enhancing the student experience.

We continue to invest in services and initiatives that place wellbeing at the centre of university life.

NSS 2025

During some of the more challenging moments in my journey, the Wellbeing Team were there to support me. Their guidance helped me stay focused, build resilience and continue growing both personally and academically.

Nevena Nedyalkova
MSc International Project Management

Student Wellbeing

At ARU London, our priority is ensuring every student receives comprehensive support throughout their academic journey.

Our dedicated Wellbeing team offers specialised guidance and assistance to students facing mental health challenges, ongoing medical conditions, disabilities, and specific learning difficulties.

Life and Progress

Our Student Support and Wellbeing Service, delivered in partnership with Life & Progress, provides confidential 24/7 support by phone or online. Trained wellbeing professionals are available to listen and guide you through personal, emotional, or practical challenges. The service is free to access and available throughout your studies.

Wellbeing Advisory Service

Our Wellbeing Student Advisors support you through emotional and wellbeing difficulties during your time at ARU London. They will listen to your needs and work with you to create a personalised support plan, including referrals to relevant internal or external services where appropriate.

To self-refer, email: studentwellbeing@london.aru.ac.uk.

Disability and Inclusion Service

The Disability and Inclusion Service supports students with specific learning difficulties, such as dyslexia, and long-term medical, physical, or mental health conditions.

The team implements reasonable adjustments to ensure students are not disadvantaged during their studies and can advise on eligibility for Disabled Students' Allowance (DSA).

Support is also available for students who have been recently diagnosed, including dyslexia pre-screening.

Counselling Service

The Counselling Service provides a safe space to talk through emotional difficulties and life challenges, including:

- Low mood and anxiety
- Bereavement
- Low self-esteem
- Family or relationship difficulties

Our counsellors are professionally qualified and work in line with the British Association of Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP) ethical framework, with external supervision in place.

iCentre

The iCentre is our main information hub, with Student Advisors supporting the non-academic aspects of your studies. They provide guidance on all areas of student life and can help in person or direct you to the right team.

Thanks to the support and collaborative efforts of the iCentre, I was able to refocus on my studies with renewed confidence. Their unwavering dedication to student welfare truly underscores ARU London's commitment to fostering student success.

Madlen Vasileva
BSc Business and Events Management

Director of Studies

The Director of Studies Office supports your academic progression from admissions through to graduation, with dedicated advisors available on campus and online. The team provides guidance on deadlines, progression, and academic decisions.

The Director of Studies Team are here to assist if you need:

- An extension to assignment deadlines
- Advice after failing an assessment due to exceptional circumstances beyond your control
- To take a break from your studies due to a change in personal circumstances
- Support in maintaining academic integrity
- A plan on how you can progress to the next level of your studies
- Further academic support from a tutor on assessments or resits

Personal Development Tutors

You will be assigned a Personal Development Tutor at the start of your course as your main point of contact for study-related questions. Regular sessions allow your tutor to monitor your progress and provide guidance to support your development.

Welcome Week

Our Welcome Week supports students at every stage of their transition into university life, with clear and timely information before, during, and beyond the week itself. It is designed to orientate and welcome you, explain what is expected at university, and provide the tools and information needed to become an independent learner. Welcome Week also encourages students to build friendships and networks, marking the start of your journey at ARU London.

Learning Resource Centre

The Learning Resource Centre (LRC) supports your studies by providing help with learning platforms including VLE, Kortext, Zoom, the Digital Library, the myARUL app, and Microsoft Office. Students can access support via the LRC Live Zoom Chat or attend workshops on Excel, Word, PowerPoint, referencing, and academic databases.

I am grateful that ARU London provides various digital services that can be accessed 24/7 within my reach which has helped me to get information and knowledge to support me throughout my course.

Employability-focused courses

Research suggests many UK graduates are not fully prepared for the working world.

With this in mind, our undergraduate degrees include modules that build vital employability skills.

Our courses are designed in collaboration with employers to reflect industry needs and opportunity gaps, alongside additional resources to support your aspirations.

Our Employability Team

Our in-house Employability Team works in person and online to support you in developing your career while studying at ARU London. The team equips students with tools to manage their career and prepare for future opportunities.

This includes:

- Advice to help you identify suitable career, course, or training routes
- Support to recognise your existing skills, values, and experience
- Identifying gaps in knowledge, training, and experience for your chosen role
- Guidance to develop a clear career plan for graduation or further study
- Support to build confidence in networking, online presence, and career development

We provide you with practical help including:

- Exploring career options to find the right path for you
- Gaining industry exposure through connections with professionals and alumni
- Job search and applications support
- Interview preparation to build confidence
- CV enhancement and tailoring
- Exploring postgraduate study options
- Enterprise support to develop business ideas
- Planning your next steps

We bring industry and employers to you

ARU London works with a wide range of companies and organisations to support your employability. Our partners contribute to course design, assessments, and industry-informed learning, helping you develop skills relevant to graduate employment.

Employer events

Meet graduate employers through our industry exposure sessions, in-class employer visits, careers fairs, and awards ceremonies.

Paid Union opportunities

The Union offers paid roles that provide leadership experience and help you develop communication, management, and organisational skills while working alongside other students.

Enterprise Support

If you are an entrepreneur, or interested in becoming one, we work with inspiring expert partners to equip you to start or grow a successful business.

Enterprise Hub

Make your part-time work count

We help you recognise and highlight transferable skills gained through part-time work to support future promotion and graduate opportunities, including CV development.

Volunteering

We can support you to access volunteer opportunities to demonstrate the skills you need for success in your chosen graduate role, along with any part-time roles you may want while studying.

Alumni

Our support doesn't end at graduation. We continue to support you to develop your career management skills and provide opportunities for you to share your successes to inspire the next generation of students.

Job Opportunities

We regularly update job boards with graduate roles and opportunities. Students and alumni can also access support with CVs, cover letters, interview preparation, and assessment practice.

Our students rated 'teaching on my course' at an outstanding 89%, placing ARU London in the top 20 nationally and reflecting our academics' dedication to inspiring, high-quality learning NSS 2025

I found the Enterprise Hub extremely helpful in my business journey. It taught me key skills and gave me valuable networking opportunities, including connecting me with my business partner through the Enterprise Hub networking group.

Success Stories

Our alumni's successes are something we are incredibly proud of at ARU London, along with being a source of inspiration for current and future students, staff, and the ARU London community.

Teodora Tudzharova
BSc Business and Law

Teodora, a graduate with a degree in Business and Law, exemplifies the transformative journey made possible by ARU London. With over eight years of experience in human resources and administration, she made a significant transition into the legal field, greatly shaping her career.

Teodora's path was not easy; after graduating in July 2022, she spent a year job hunting and often felt uncertain about her future. During this challenging time, she had the privilege of working with the Employer Team, whose support helped her refine her CV, prepare for interviews, and secure a valuable work experience opportunity at KC Solicitors law firm.

This pivotal experience equipped Teodora with insights, skills, and confidence, ultimately leading her to her current role as an Immigration Paralegal at Barar & Associates Immigration law firm.

Her journey underscores the value of embracing challenges and work experience in shaping a professional path. Teodora's story inspires others to navigate their own journeys and seize opportunities along the way.

Andrii Semenenko,
MSc in Accounting and Financial Management

Andrii, a graduate of the MSc in Accounting and Financial Management, exemplifies the transformative impact of studying at ARU London.

Throughout his studies, he benefited from a strong emphasis on practical learning, gaining hands-on experience through industry-relevant modules and applied projects that strengthened his analytical and decision-making skills.

With the support of dedicated lecturers and tailored employability guidance, Andrii developed the confidence and professional capabilities required to succeed in a competitive financial environment.

Today, he works as a Senior Grants and Projects Finance Officer at the University of Oxford, managing complex financial portfolios and supporting effective project delivery, demonstrating how the right academic environment can turn ambition into achievement.

Student Finance, Fees, and Scholarships

Our fees

Our fees are subject to change at any time and are reviewed annually – this includes changes due to government policy. As of March 2025, our tuition fees are:

Foundation year

£9,760 per year (UK/EU Fees)

£5,760 per year (UK/EU Fees)

Undergraduate degree

£9,760 per year (UK/EU Fees)

Postgraduate degree

MSc £9,000 per course (UK/EU Fees)

MBA £9,500 per course (UK/EU Fees)

*Tuition fees vary for each course. Please refer to the relevant course page for the specific fee details.

Student loans

As a student, you are eligible for loans from Student Finance England to support you while you study; together these are your student loan. Your student loan comprises a tuition fee loan and a maintenance loan, and a postgraduate loan if applicable.

If you are starting your first undergraduate degree in 2026/27, you'll be on Plan 5 for your student loan. For this plan, you won't repay any of your loan back until you earn over £25,000 per year pre-tax.

The threshold for how much you need to earn to repay your loan changes annually in April. This information is correct as of January 2026 but is subject to change.

Tuition fee loan

Tuition fee loans are obtained from Student Finance England and are used to pay the cost of your tuition fees.

You can apply for a Tuition Fee Loan through Student Finance England.

Please refer to the government page on student finance to check deadlines and eligibility: www.gov.uk/student-finance.

Maintenance loan

As well as a tuition fee loan, you can apply for a maintenance loan from Student Finance England too.

The maintenance loan you receive depends on:

- Where you live when studying
- Your family household income

Postgraduate loan

The postgraduate loan (PGL) is a loan of up to £12,858 for new postgraduate students starting on or after August 2025. You may be eligible for a PGL if you:

- Are aged under 60 on the first day of the academic year.
- Don't already hold a master's qualification (or equivalent or higher-level qualification, i.e. a Doctorate).
- Are a UK National or individual with settled status in the UK or ordinarily resident in the UK and Ireland for 3 years on the first day of the first academic year of your course.
- Are an EU national, have the residency status of refugee, humanitarian protection, EEA or Swiss migrant worker, or a family member of any of the previous categories or a child of a Swiss national or Turkish worker.

You will be able to apply for a PGL on the Student Finance website. If you already have an account with Student Finance England from an undergraduate loan, you should use this to apply for your PGL. If you are eligible for the PGL, it will be paid directly into your UK bank account in three equal instalments each academic year.

You will not start paying back your postgraduate loan until you pass the threshold of earning over £21,000 per year pre-tax, as of March 2025.

EU Applicants

As of 1st of August 2021, you must have a settled or pre-settled status under the EU Settlement Scheme to apply for student finance.

Grants and extra support

Depending on your circumstances, students can gain further governmental support such as:

- Universal Credit
- Childcare Grant
- Parents' Learning Allowance
- Adults Dependants' Grant
- Disabled Students' Allowance and disability-related support
- Advanced Learner Loan

Undergraduate scholarships

We offer scholarships before, during and after your undergraduate studies.

Entry Scholarship

We encourage all of our new applicants to apply for our Entry Scholarship.

£1,000 off first-year fees for eligible new applicants who meet the following criteria:

- 144 (AAA) UCAS points (UK/EU) or
- A+ grade or a minimum of 80% or GPA 5.0 in your A-Levels or equivalent qualifications (international students)

Top Achievers

£2,000 scholarships for overall top achievers in Year 0 (foundation year), Year 1, and Year 2, applied to tuition fees for the following academic year.

East London Boroughs Bursary

£500 per academic year for eligible full-time undergraduate students from selected East London boroughs, subject to household income and Student Finance England means testing.

Find out more about our scholarships at london.aru.ac.uk/admissions/scholarships

Postgraduate scholarships

Entry Scholarship

Similar to our undergraduate Entry Scholarship, we offer a Postgraduate Entry Scholarship with £1,000 off your entire course fee if you achieve a First Class honours degree from a university in the UK.

Master's Scholarship Programme

Each year, we provide several scholarships throughout our 3 intakes. The successful applicants will receive 50% off their tuition fees, a scholarship worth £4,250!

To apply, applicants must write 750+ words on why they wish to study for a postgraduate degree at ARU London.

Alumni Scholarship

If you graduated with an undergraduate degree at any ARU campus, we offer £2,000 off your entire course fee when you enrol as a postgraduate student with us.

Please note that only one scholarship can be applied per student. The scholarship with the highest value will be taken into consideration.

Small Print

ARU London processes personal data and sensitive personal data on all applicants and enrolled students in computer and paper-based administrative systems. All such data is processed in accordance with UK Data Protection Legislation.

This information document may include links to external websites run by other organisations. ARU London is not responsible for the privacy practices of these other websites, so you should read their privacy policies carefully.

Before you apply to ARU London

This prospectus describes the courses and awards offered by ARU London. It was prepared in January 2026*, and refers to courses which will be available in September 2026, January 2027 and May 2027. ARU London has taken considerable care in the preparation of this prospectus to ensure its accuracy at the time of printing, but please refer to our website which contains further information about each course, including any updates to the course itself. The online course catalogue can be viewed at london.aru.ac.uk/courses

ARU London endeavours to take all reasonable steps to provide the education services in the manner set out in this prospectus. It does not, however, guarantee the provision of such services. In exceptional circumstances, it may be necessary to make changes to the education services due to industrial action, change in government policies, changes to funding or the law, for staffing, financial, regulatory or academic reasons, or other events beyond the control of ARU London which interfere with its ability to provide education services. ARU London will take reasonable steps to minimise the resulting disruption to those services. ARU London cannot be held responsible for failure/delay in performing obligations caused by things beyond its reasonable control, including, but not limited to, industrial action.

Notice to potential students

Should you become a student at ARU London, an offer letter will be sent to you, and this shall constitute a term of any contract between you and ARU London. Any offer of a place made to you by ARU London is made on the basis that, in accepting such an offer, you signify your consent and agreement to abide by the Rules, Regulations and Procedures for Students as a term of any such contract. You will also receive additional documents detailing the teaching, examination, assessment and other education services offered by ARU London. In particular, you will be invited to be bound by the Rules, Regulations and Procedures for Students, a copy of which can be obtained from the Secretary & Clerk's Office or at www.aru.ac.uk/about-us/governance/policies-procedures-and-regulations
